

Hoophouses for Health

Hoophouses for Health Webinars

Join these webinars to learn more about successful hoophouse growing and marketing strategies through the Hoophouses for Health program.

Vegetable Transplant Greenhouses: Design, Set-up, Tips, and Techniques

Thursday, March 17, 2016
7 - 8 p.m.

Speaker: Michael Kirkpatrick,
Kilpatrick Family Farm

Register at <http://bit.ly/1nIQ4Aj>

Intermediate/ Advanced Warm Season High Tunnel Crop Production

Thursday, March 24
7 - 8 p.m.

Speaker: Adam Montri, MSU
Hoophouse Outreach Specialist and
Co-owner, Ten Hens Farm

Register at <http://bit.ly/24GttAg>

Connecting and Selling to Schools and Specialty Grocery Stores

Thursday, March 31
7 - 8 p.m.

Speakers: Nate Bates, Chef/Food
Service Director, Boyne Falls Public
Schools; Sharon Ostrowski, Owner,
Sharkar Farm; Erin Caudell, MSU
Hoophouse Outreach Specialist, Co-
owner, The Local Grocer and Flint
Ingredient Company

Register at <http://bit.ly/1p5bNhl>

Registration is required, but there is no fee to attend.

To join a Zoom webinar, you will need to: 1.) download the Zoom application by clicking the Join URL upon registration, 2.) have a connection to the Internet, and 3.) ensure your computer has speakers or a headset. Zoom's web-based conferencing uses high-quality video and audio and is accessible on MacOS, Windows, iOS and Android mobile devices. You should load and test the software on the device and location you will be using for the webinar.

